New Development In City May Use WSSC Water, Sewer; McDonald Urges

By I. J. Parker

A probable solution to Greenbelt's development problem was disclosed by city manager Charles McDonald to the city council last Monday night when McDonald urged the city to permit the Washington Suburban Sanitary Commission to service all future development in the city. The plan permits existing homes to be provided water and sewage service by the city, as at present, including two proposed developments along Woodland Way.

McDonald declared that the proposal would eliminate any major delay in homebuilding, as the WSSC is prepared to move in with its services immediately and has expressed willingness to undertake the project. Also eliminated is a need for the city to finance expansion of present water and sewer facilities through a municipal bond issue. "The city of Greenbelt can go far beyond its ability to support a bond issue, and may impair its financial standing that way," McDonald said. "It would be to the best interests of Greenbelt and its citizens if the Suburban Sanitary Commission would service the new development," he added.

McDonald to Meet

The council instructed McDonald to meet with officials of the WSSC to agree on lines dividing the authority of the two groups. Needed in addition to the agreement, however, is approval of the state legislature before such an agreement becomes final. The city council will meet on Monday, at 8:30 to hear the results of the conference and to give final passage of the measure, after the citizens have had an opportunity to express themselves on the plan.

McDonald reminded the council that those future home-owners would be paying a higher rate for service from WSSC than present Greenbelt residents, who have their own city service.

Local Credit Union Praised By Auditor

In a routine audit of the Greenbelt Federal Credit Union last week, John Bodmer, examiner for the Bureau of Federal Credit Unions, praised the board of directors and committees of the local credit union for the exemplary service which they are rendering to the community.

Bodmer referred especially to the new measures recently adopted by the credit union to improve service and reduce the cost of loans to the borrower. These new measures were: 1. To accept equity in Greenbelt homes as collateral for loans at three-quarter of 1% per month on the unpaid balance; 2. Loans on new cars reduced to one-half of 1% per month on unpaid balance; 3. Other selected collateral, such as credit union shares and GCS shares, one-half of 1% per month on unpaid balance; 4. Extended office hours to include 10 a.m. to 12 noon on Saturdays; 5. Loan applications to be acted on during all office hours.

Recently, because of the crowded condition of their former office and the necessity for evening work by the GCS office staff, the Credit Union moved to its present location adjacent to the city offices over the Variety store.

"BROTHERHOOD WEEK"

"Ambulance Club" Drive Begins Tuesday By Volunteer Rescue Squad

By Laura Perlman

One long blast on the siren means someone in the Greenbelt area needs emergency help. At least four men stand ready night and day to rush victims of accident or illness to hospitals or give on-the-spot first aid.

These men are members of the Greenbelt Rescue Squad, a 38-man, strictly volunteer group, whose members receive not a penny for their service or for their lost hours of sleep. Beginning next Tuesday, the Squad will open an all-out drive for funds—to be used entirely for upkeep and operation of its two ambulances and other emergency equipment.

$2 Fee

During this drive, which runs through March 15, a volunteer committee will ask local residents to contribute a $2 membership fee to the Ambulance Club, which will entitle them to Club services during the year.

During 1954 the Squad answered 304 calls—more than 100 of them for emergency ambulance service. In another 77 cases routine transportation for medical treatment was provided by the Squad, the only group in Prince Georges County which handles this service. Other cases involved pedestrian and auto mobile accidents, maternity cases, fire victims, and a variety of illnesses.

In the fall, the Rescue Squad answered the call for the first accident on the new section of the Washington-Baltimore parkway and took three Marines to Prince Georges Hospital after their car overturned at the Glenn Dale overpass. In another case the Squad gave first aid and ambulance service to a Greenbelt boy who was struck and seriously injured by a truck here. In providing ambulance service for local residents, Squad members traveled as far as New York City and Charlottesville, Virginia.

5 Original Members

During some seven years of service, the Rescue Squad has acquired a well-trained force of men and variety of equipment to provide these emergency services. In 1946 when five men banded together to form the group, they started with a single piece of equipment—a 1936 Buick ambulance which three of them purchased with their own money. Considerable time was taken up with training and organization before the Squad began actual operations.

Today the Squad has two radio-equipped ambulances carrying complete first-aid equipment and a variety of other supplies for use in all types of emergencies. Among these are three devices for supplying oxygen to victims of heart attacks, pneumonia, and other illnesses, including a new Neolator for transporting ironlung patients.

Members are well trained to provide on-the-spot aid to victims. Every man holds a standard first-aid certificate, at least half have completed the advanced course, and seven are first-aid instructors.

The Greenbelt Squad is a member of the Maryland Ambulance and Rescue Association, prepared to serve wherever needed in case of air raid or other State disaster. Under a new organization of service a member of the county Volunteer Squad will also become Rescue Squad Association, entitled to partial support from county funds.

Squad President Marshall Zoellner reports that the new set-up, consolidating the Rescue Squad with the Fire Department, is now in operation, but final legal arrangements for the merger are still pending. Zoellner emphasized that the $1300 a year the Squad will receive under the new arrangement will be more than matched by additional service required by the county and that no funds can be used for Ambulance Club services.

8GVHCCandidates Announced So Far

The names of nine candidates for the board of directors of Greenbelt Veterans Housing Corporation were announced last Tuesday night by the corporation's nominations and elections committee.

Five of the nine are incumbents Bruce Bowman, Edward Burgoon, Hans Jorgensen, Frank Lastner, and Al Long. The new nominees are Henley Goode, John Pharris, Hal Silvers, and Herman Sirlin. The committee also released the name of a nominee for the auditing committee, Frank La Parle.

Election March 10

Nine directors of GVHC, a full board, will be elected Thursday, March 10 at the annual meeting of the corporation. In addition, three members of the auditing committee will be elected.

The names and biographies (including statement of willingness to serve if elected) of all candidates not already submitted should be delivered to 13-V Ridge before Sunday, February 27, for publication in next week's News Review, according to Ralph G. Miller, chairman of the nominations and elections committee.

The names of all candidates whose nominations and statements of willingness to serve if elected have been presented by the nominations and elections committee or by any ten members to the Secretary of GVHC by Monday, March 7, will appear on the ballot, Miller stated.

Important Issues On GCA Meeting Agenda

The executive committee of the Greenbelt Citizens' Association met Monday evening and proposed for the association's February 28 meeting an agenda consisting primarily of a discussion of important legislation currently pending in the Maryland State Legislature. Particular attention will be directed to the juvenile court bill, the bill to prohibit trucks from using the Washington-Baltimore Parkway, municipal home rule, the library bill, the child welfare bill, and the so-called "right to work" legislation.

The possible effect of the recent decisions of the Greenbelt city council and the board of directors of Greenbelt Veterans Housing Corporation to support a request by the owners for the rezoning of two tracts near the B&O railroad to permit light and heavy industry will also be considered.

The association will sound out public opinion as to the desirability of their sponsoring a public meeting to hear and question candidates for the GVHC board of directors and audit committee. Candidates may be heard at the annual GVHC meeting on March 10; however, if you wish to question the candidates at length to know where they stand on issues that may affect your welfare, come and say so.

Reception Honors Five Puerto Ricans Friday

A reception in honor of five Puerto Rican co-op trainees will be held on Friday evening at 8 p.m. at the social hall of the Greenbelt Community Church. Various dignitaries and diplomats of the Organization of American States and representatives of the Resident Commissioner of Puerto Rico will join GCS board members in welcoming the men who are here as part of the technical assistance program.

All residents are invited and urged to attend. Mrs. Herman Sirlin will offer a brief piano program of Latin-American music. Refreshments will be served.

Tierney Replaces Webster

The resignation of Ralph Webster from the Youth Advisory Board was received by the city council this week. Louis Tierney, 2-F Laurel Hill, was selected by the city council to replace Webster.

A Communication,

Ex-Board Member Bordenet Declares GVHC Contract "Weakness" Myth

Through GVHC directors and others I have learned that the alleged "weaknesses" in the GVHC Perpetual Use contract are the provisions which make it a better contract from the viewpoint of the members and which were included therein on my recommendation with the full approval of the board after thorough discussions of the problems involved.

One alleged "weakness" is that it permits GVHC to terminate the member's contract only for default or "sufficient cause." The purpose of this provision is to protect members from arbitrary eviction and was deliberately included with full knowledge that the courts would require that GVHC have a strong case against the member to evict him. We planned it that way. The law affords GVHC sufficient protection through other remedies for misconduct and nuisances.

Another alleged "weakness" is the right of members to cancel their contracts on 60 days notice. Its purpose is to relieve a member of further liability if he is transferred, etc., before he can sell his equity. This improves the marketability of the contract. It is alleged that a member can cancel his contract and demand the return of his equity and that there could be a wholesale cancellation by members to obtain return of their equities. Baloney. The contract specifically provides that GVHC shall not be obligated to make any payment to the canceling member for his "equity" except upon the resale of the Perpetual Use, and prescribes the terms and conditions of the settlement. The only way GVHC could lose would be by inability to rent the dwelling, which is unlikely. Provision is made for recovering vacancy losses in the interim through deduction from the settlement. Furthermore, very few members would risk loss of their equities through cancellation, but the right to cancel is good insurance.

Neither of these provisions in existing contracts can be changed without the individual consent of members. They should be retained in all future contracts. The GVHC contract is sound and should not be materially changed.

The GVHC board has received erroneous information about the contract. Other weaknesses were alleged incident to a proposal for some sort of real estate brokerage deal. All GVHC members ought to know about that proposal (another alarmist turkey), which is fully quoted in my report on it in the minutes of the GVHC board meeting of February 5, 1954.

It is also alleged that under existing law GVHC members might be able to get a fee simple title in ten years. That is doubtful. However, the board favors (to the tune of $500) legislation to prevent this. Policy on this question should be decided by the membership, not by the board. Members opposed to the proposed legislation can make their views known to the State legislature. There are other uncertainties in the law affecting GVHC that could be explored more profitably with a view to remedial legislation.

Congratulations to Ann Citron of 20-E Ridge who was awarded her degree of Bachelor of Science in Education from the University of Maryland. Some of Ann's many friends honored her with a dinner on January 29 at Napoleon's Restaurant. She is very happy in her new job as Director of the Nursery School in Barney Neighborhood House.

On February 26, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Green, 3-K Eastway, will help their son Paul celebrate his Bar-Mitzvah. Relatives from out of town, along with their many Greenbelt friends will attend the affair in the social room of the Center school.

Just a week after the shower given in her honor, Mrs. Esther Tillem of Detroit had a baby girl, Amy Lee, on February 16. Her husband Kal, her daughter Lona (10 years old) and her son Larry (7½ years old) are as happy as her many Greenbelt friends.

Condolences to Ruth Bowman on the passing of her father on February 15.

Mrs. Marca Kerr, 3 Forestway, is in Prince Georges Hospital recuperating from an operation to remove a disc from her back. She is doing fine and expects to be home by the end of the week. Mrs. Kerr is an Avon representative and wants all her friends to know that she would like to see them since she will be invalided for two to three months.

Mr. and Mrs. James Fowler announce the arrival of Warren James on February 8. Warren bowed in at Prince Georges Hospital at nine pounds. He joins twin brothers (2½ years old) and a sister (5½ years old) at 44-T Ridge.

Seth Harter, Jr., of 8-F Research recently received his second lieutenant commission through the Air Force ROTC program at the University of Maryland.

On February 16, Mrs. Margaret Webster, Mrs. Dora White, and Mrs. Lucille Fonda had the totally unexpected and thrilling pleasure of meeting Tallulah Bankhead AND Mamie Eisenhower in person. The ladies attended the matinee performance of "Dear Charles" and after the show went backstage to ask "Tallu" to autograph a copy of her book. They walked in just as she was introducing Patsy Kelly and the rest of the cast to Mrs. Eisenhower. When Lucille told "Tallu" that she had read her book while recuperating from an operation, "Tallu" said, in that incomparable voice of hers, "I hope it didn't bring on a relapse."

Mr. and Mrs. J. Donald (Donnie) Wolfe, 29-B Ridge, announce the arrival of Cynthia Ann on February 20 at Prince Georges Hospital. Cynthia Ann weighed in at six pounds 10 ounces and all three Wolfes are doing well.

We have a Greenbelt resident who will shortly be leaving our fair town for far-away places and who will really be missed. Mrs. Bettie Denson, 13-C Hillside, will be sailing March 5 on the "America" for a two-year stay in London, England. She will be the secretary to the Agricultural Attache.

On January 20, at a regular meeting of the Women's Discussion Group of the Community Church at Mrs. Lewis Moody's, Mrs. Denson was presented with a leather passport case.

Girl Scout troop 146 had a party on February 15 in the Fellowship Room of the Community Church to which they invited several boys from Boy Scout Troop 202. The girls made the cupcakes and everyone had a lot of fun dancing and playing games.

Mrs. Winfield McCamy has just become a grandmother for the third time, courtesy of her daughter Mrs. Jack E. Waldo. Little Alison Waldo made her debut on February 17 in Prince Georges hospital and is the first child of Mr. and Mrs. Waldo who live in Silver Spring. Alison is Mrs. McCamy's third granddaughter!

There are many new residents in Greenbelt whom we'd like to inroduce to you as your new neighbors. Here are some of them: Martin J. Schrott of 73-P Ridge; John E. Blankenagel of 4-Q Laurel Hill; Donald J. Vitt of 13-L Ridge; Lee R. Herman of 12-D Laurel Hill; and Howard T. Voorhees Jr. of 10-H Laurel Hill.

The Richard S. Johnston's and their two year old daughter Susan have recently moved into 8-A Hillside (GR. 4-7357) from Mt. Rainier. Mr. Johnston works at the Naval Research Laboratory.

Welcome to Mr. and Mrs. Ramon Lanuza of 38-H Ridge (GR. 4-8042) and their 16 month old girl. The Lanuzas are natives of Puerto Rico but have lived in the States for two years. Mr. Lanuza is with the Navy.

Another interesting couple is the Walter Moores of 19-L Ridge (GR. 4-9368). They are natives of this area and have a married daughter living in Plainfield, New Jersey. Mrs. Moore teaches remedial reading and Mr. Moore is an instructor in painting at the National Training School.

A newly-wed couple in town, Mr. and Mrs. William J. Wright of 12-C Ridge (GR. 4-8081) should have no difficulty meeting people in Greenbelt. They have an aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Eshbaugh and her mother and father living in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Sullivan have recently moved into 33-T Ridge (GR. 3-3537). They have two daughters, Denise (17 months) and Donna (3 months). Mr. Sullivan expects to graduate from the University of Maryland in June with a degree in Civil Engineering.

There is one more neighbor I would like you to meet this week. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Tippet of 14-B Hillside (GR. 4-9327).

There have also been some transfers in town recently. Evelyn E. Clark has moved to 73-M Ridge; Robert Kosisky to 6-D Research; Joseph Leckliter to 10-A Hillside; and Aubrey Marcus to 9-F Research.

On February 14, Mrs. Madelyn Moore of 2-D Westway received a real surprise. The "meeting" she was supposed to attend turned out to be a baby shower given by the Women's Bowling League and her friends and neighbors in the social room of the school. Mrs. Moore is a very community-minded person—she organized the Mothers March on Polio this year and has been very active in town.

Roberta Danish of 16-Q Ridge provided lots of fun for twelve of her friends with a "Hard Times Party" on February 12. The kids came dressed in ragged clothing to carry out the theme.

Mrs. Gilda Kling of 1-A Ridge is recuperating nicely from an emergency appendectomy performed last Saturday at Georgetown University Hospital. She expects to be home on February 19, and has been forced to cancel her plans to visit her son in New York.

Maura Dale Henry of 9-M Ridge has been awarded a journeyman's pin for her reporting work on the Notre Dame "Dome." This is quite an honor for a sixteen-year-old and Maura has been recommended for a higher one—the Quill and Scroll. Congratulations!

If you see some teenage girls around town washing their faces with oatmeal, don't rush to your psychiatrist. Eight girls of the J. C. C. Teenage Group under the leadership of Rose Anberg visited the Phyllis Bell Modeling School on February 8. They heard a lecture on teenage grooming, followed by a discussion period and snacks. The girls were told not to use soap on their faces—it's too drying—but to use oatmeal instead. Only time will tell. . .

Lt. Commander and Mrs. Charles Mandell, formerly of Greenbelt, now of Norfolk, Virginia, announce the engagement of their daughter Joan to Arthur Norman Weinraub. The wedding will take place on July 3, 1955 in Norfolk.

Miss Joan Mandell is a graduate of Greenbelt High School and Mr. Weinraub was recently discharged from the Marines.

Glad to hear that Mrs. Gerry Backstrom of 60-D Crescent is getting back to normal after two weeks in the hospital with a sprained back. The Backstroms are very grateful to Mrs. Harry Drennan of 80-K Crescent, who, although ill herself, helped them so much by cooking the suppers, etc. Very happy to report that this real neighbor is now up and around and recuperating nicely herself.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Leon Neuman of 6-D Crescent who celebrated their fifteenth wedding anniversary on February 21.

Make a note of the new phone number of the William Kleins of 2-F Northway. It's now GR. 3-6291.

Please do not be discouraged if the news you expect to see at a certain time does not appear until the following week. There are times when due to the large volume of other news or ads that some items have to be carried over to the following week. Please continue to call your news in to me at 3251.

Scout Fund Drive Success; Nets $483

The second progress meeting of the Boy Scout Sustaining Membership drive Monday night found the Greenbelt scout units ready with a most successful report. The six Unit Captains each received 100% Awards for their respective units and turned in a total of $483.16 toward the National Capital Area Council Boy Scout budget for 1955.

Percy H. Andros, Northern Prince Georges County chairman and Dean W. Jensen, Greenbelt area chairman, wish to extend thanks to the 379 citizens of Greenbelt whose contributions as Sustaining Members put the Greenbelt area over the top in its quota in this campaign, and to the Unit Captains and workers who did the leg work.

The unit captains in Greenbelt this year are Leland Leasia, Cub Pack 229, Edward J. Meier, Troop 229, Arthur R. Cusick, Explorer Post 229, Kenneth Powell, Cub Pack 202, John H. Thomas, Troop 202 and Otto C. Voigt, Explorer Post 202.

City Heart Throbs To Tune Of $560

By Mrs. Paul Campbell

The "Heart Fund" campaign conducted in Greenbelt by the Woman's Club resulted in a $560 collection, officials reported this week. The women who participated in the collection, which had fine city-wide support, are block captains: Mrs. Adelbert Long, Mrs. George Panoagoulis, Mrs. William L. Moore, Jr., Mrs. James Smith, Mrs. Francis Ging, Mrs. Nelson Holton, Mrs. George Holton, Mrs. George Erdman, Mrs. Albert Eller-in, Mrs. Jean Schneider, Mrs. Ralph Miller, Mrs. George Harbaugh, Mrs. Harold Huffendick, and Mrs. Paul Featherby.

The people of Greenbelt once again have responded in a very generous manner to this year's Polio Drive:

Mothers' March	$584.28
North End School	29.62
Center School	68.50
Post Office	97.71
Coin Collectors	26.70
Business and Organizations	21.61
Total	$918.42

For the National Foundation and myself I wish to express my heartfelt gratitude to those who contributed. The total contribution reflects the unselfish manner in which the many workers gave so freely of their time and efforts. Due to the lack of space I regret I cannot list all their names.

Important advances are taking place in research and other phases of this disease. This progress has been made possible in part by the generous contributions of the people of Greenbelt. The spirit that prevails in Greenbelt insures the continuing fight against this dread disease.

Thank you.

Laryngitis caused city clerk Winfield McCamy to miss last Monday night's city council meeting. Her place was taken by another very competent secretary, well versed in council procedures and city problems—city manager Charles McDonald. Besides taking minutes and answering queries from council members, McDonald demonstrated his versatility and agility by running the tape recorder at the same time.

High Point News

The Northern Echo, a newspaper from High Prairie, Alberta, Canada was received by our Journalism class on February 16. It was in answer to one of the letters sent to all parts of the country by members of Mrs. Geohegan's first and second period classes. Those letters requested suggestions for an emblem and mascot for High Point and for exchange papers.

The following paragraph was written in the "High School Hi-Lights" column in the Northern Echo:

"Expressing interest in corresponding with students of High Point High School in Maryland, U.S.A. The initials of both schools are the same, H.P.H.S. The Maryland students will adopt the colors and crest of High Prairie, while, in exchange, the name of the new High Prairie High School paper, "The Beacon," has been borrowed from the High Point High."

It was very interesting to hear from our neighbors in Canada.

County Starts Program Of Summer Playground

Community groups in Prince Georges County wishing assistance in conducting summer playground programs are urged to make written application to the Prince Georges County Recreation Board by March 1, according to Ellen Linson, Director of Recreation.

The County Recreation Department provides trained leadership for the eight-week summer program while all equipment and supplies are furnished by local community groups. Facilities of the Board of Education, the Maryland-National Capital Park and Planning Commission, and municipalities, are used as the playground program.

The Recreation Board has requested a budget appropriation of $90,000 to expand the present year-round program. Request is made to provide leadership for 55 playgrounds, an increase of seven over the previous year. The number of playgrounds which will be conducted is dependent, the Board pointed out, on the appropriation for the Department approved by the County Commissioners.

New community groups wishing information on the necessary steps to be taken to secure a supervised summer playground should write to the Recreation Department, 4811 Riverdale Road, Maryland.

Fly Tying Course

With the fishing season just around the corner, now is the time to start making those nymph, dry and wet flies. To assist those boys, girls, and parents who are interested, the Prince Georges County Recreation Department is sponsoring a course in Fly Tying which began Monday, February 21, 1955. The classes will be held at the C&W Sport Shop, 3026 Hamilton Street, West Hyattsville, beginning at 7 p.m. Walt Darling of the Izaak Walton League will be the instructor. The course will be free; however, there will be a small charge for the materials used.

SQUARE DANCE

The First Annual Coaches Club Banquet

By E. DonBullian

The first annual Coaches Club Banquet took place in Community Church's social hall Saturday evening, February 12. Rev. Eric T. Braund was master of ceremonies, assisted by Bob Halpin who together with Chester Speziale originated the idea of the dinner.

Selection of the recipients of the various awards was made by a special committee appointed for that purpose. The first award winner was Tony Baker, who earned the "Greenbelt Athlete for 1954" trophy. Tony has given Greenbelt national recognition by his many exploits on the baseball diamond. Pete Cookson of the Lions Club was awarded the "Coach of the Year" trophy. It does not seem possible for one man to do all the coaching he has done during the past year: he coached 3 successful basketball teams, a softball team, and a touch-football team. How he found the time is a mystery; in fact, he has spread himself out so thin that he could not attend the banquet to receive his award. "Chuck" Link of the Little League was awarded a plaque for the man who contributed the most to the "Youth of Greenbelt in Sports for 1954." Passing over his coaching of the 120-lb. Boys Club football team (a job in itself), Chuck's main function is a job that very few people would even attempt: he has complete charge of the Little League's Farm Teams, which is the development of eight- and nine-year-old boys for the Little Leagues of Greenbelt.

"Chet" Speziale received the trophy for the man who did "The Most for Sports in 1954." "Chet's" contributions to sports were many and varied: he initiated a touch football league and coached one of the teams, boys club 90 lb. football, he coached boxing, had charge of one of the Little League teams, etc. His most noteworthy achievement from an all-sports standpoint, however, was the development of the Coaches Club of Greenbelt which resulted in last Saturday's banquet. In addition to these special awards, Coach William Sauls and Assistant Coach Donald Wilson of last year's undefeated 135-lb. football team were given trophies by the parents of the payers.

OPEN LETTER

To: Everyone Interested in Potomac Area Cooperatives:

The Potomac Cooperative Federation plans to celebrate a year of very exciting co-op progress and expansion at a big dinner on March 1, to be held in the dining hall of the American Association of University Women, 1634 Eye Street, N. W., at 6:30 p.m.

Come and hear of the record-breaking achievements accomplished at Falls Church, Va., Wheaton, Md., and Hampton, Va. Hear about co-op progress ranging from the opening of our new regional warehouse in Baltimore to the attendance of thousands of youngsters at Adventure Theatre performances. Learn of Farm Bureau Insurance Companies' plans to go "Nation-wide" and of the progress of our other cooperatives.

Featured speaker at the event will be Senator Pat McNamara, of Michigan, who thrilled the Nation with his spectacular victory in the election last fall. He has been a leader of the labor movement in his state and a member of the board of education in his home city of Detroit. Senator McNamara will discuss the responsibility for our schools—a subject which has been set forth by President Eisenhower as a major consideration for the present session of Congress, and a topic in which all cooperators are deeply interested.

Most groups would think this occasion worthy of celebrating with one of those $10.00 dinners; but we have kept the price down to $2.60 and are still able to provide a fine dinner. Your presence will help to stamp this an epoch-making occasion. The leaders of all our cooperatives want you to be present because it will increase your power and enthusiasm for the work of the coming year.

Please make your reservations for the dinner as soon as possible by writing or phoning the Federation office. The deadline for reservations is Friday, February 25, but it will help the Committee greatly if you will reserve your place now.

Leroy A. Halbert, Chairman
Program Committee

PUBLIC HOUSING

Those who regret Uncle Sam's almost complete withdrawal from the field of public housing in our own country may be interested in the following statistics published by Cronache Economiche (Torino):

The United Nations, with money supplied by the United States Government, has constructed housing projects in Italy during the last 8 years totaling over 50,000 rooms, and repaired over 310,000 rooms in war-damaged buildings. Among the new projects are villages for Italians repatriated from territories given to Yugoslavia, villages for flood sufferers in the Po Valley and in Calabria, and the famous suburb "La Martella" for the disinherited of Materano.

There are still 218,000 families in Italy living in caves, shanties, and barns, not to mention 870,000 families living in unfit habitations and with more than 4 persons to each room.

Very truly yours,
George C. Reeves.

CHORAL GROUP

I believe that many more residents of Greenbelt would actively participate in the cultural programs sponsored in our community if they were better apprised of their existence. I feel privileged to publicly praise Al Herling and the Choral Group which he conducts on Monday evenings in the Center School (room 201).

The Choral Group is comprised of individuals who have joined together to enjoy community singing. To join, one need not have anything else but the desire to share an interest with his neighbor.

Mr. Herling is a wonderful teacher and in a few group sessions instills in you a feeling of belonging. Singing is a relaxing experience. The group should grow and to do so it needs more members. It will be an exhilarating treat for all new comers.

Won't more of you join our group on Monday?

Lillian Hoffman.

"VITAL ORGAN"

I read with some amazement a letter in the last News-Review which applied such terms as "immoral", "illegal", "un-American", a "practice of gangsters and extortionists" and "of socialism and communism", to what seemed to me a reasonable and certainly innocuous proposal that members of GVHC pay an extra 25 cents per month as a subscription to the News Review. If we can cross the iron curtain to communism as easily as your correspondent seems to think, we are in a bad way indeed.

The letter maintained that "GVHC can charge its members only for those things which they have by contract agreed to pay." When I had the privilege of holding a GVHC contract, it had, to the best of my recollection, no clause providing that I had agreed to pay for the issuance of a GVHC newsletter; yet no one seemed to think it was communistic for the co-op to issue the paper.

Nor did my contract say that I was to pay for the services of directors whom I may or may not have voted into office (more likely not, since GVHC gave up PR as its voting method). Yet, if my memory does not fail me, the writer of the aforesaid letter was a member of the board that proposed remuneration for directors, and graciously accepted the same when the members so voted.

I was opposed to the members' action at the time, but I had no idea that the law, morality, Americanism, etc., were so strongly on my side. I foolishly thought that only logic was with me.

As for the 25 cents, I hope GVHC members will vote for it at their annual membership meeting. I don't think they can do anything that in the long run will be more important for the welfare of their co-op. And I don't know of any law forbidding a corporation to spend money in the interest of its own welfare.

The success of Greenbelt, of GVHC, and of the Greenbelt community newspaper are inextricably interwoven. In building one, we build all. Twenty-five cents a month is a small price to pay for such a vital community organ as a local newspaper.

Girl Scout Cookie Sale Opens Mar. 4

Mrs. William E. Millos, Chairman of the cookie committee for the Girl Scout Council of Prince Georges County, has announced that the annual girl scout cookie sale opens March 4. A goal has been set of 60,000 boxes of cookies or approximately 10 boxes for each girl registered in the county.

Proceeds from the sale of cookies will be used to encourage troop camping. Camping opportunities will be provided for the girls this summer at three day camps and at the established camp in the Cacotin Recreation Area near Thurmont, Maryland. While the girl scouts are a member of the Community Chest, funds for the camping program are not provided and this program is financed entirely by the annual sale of cookies.

When the Girl Scout in green or the Brownie in brown knocks on your door, you will be offered a choice of cream-filled cookies or chocolate-covered mint cookies at the price of 45c per box. This summer you will be thanked many times by each girl who will enjoy a camping experience.

High Point 64 - Oxon Hill 84

On Tuesday, February 15, High Point played against a strong Oxon Hill five. High Point jumped out in front in the first quarter but began to lose ground in the second quarter. They trailed 38-33 at halftime and then Oxon Hill pulled ahead more in the last two quarters. The second half found High Point outscored 44-31. Both teams were "hot" as the score may indicate.

Five men hit for double figures for Oxon Hill, but it was High Point's Tony Baker who stole high scoring honors as he hit for 22 points.

Oxon Hill committed only 7 personal fouls and scored 18 points from the free throw line, while High Point could only net 6.

Boy Scout Troop 229 Reactivated In City

By Mary Henry

Just in time to celebrate Boy Scout Week with their fellow scouts throughout the nation, a new group was granted its official charter on January 28, under the old Greenbelt Troop number "229."

The ceremony took place at the Greenbelt Lutheran Church on Ridge Road, under whose sponsorship the group is being reorganized. The candlelight service, during which eleven- and twelve-year olds were welcomed to scouting was dignified, colorful and very impressive. Greenbelter Howard Hunt, of the Executive National Capital Area Council of Prince Georges County, officiated; he was assisted by Explorer Scouts Dan Cusick and Pat Hunt, and Scoutmaster Harry Frissell (whose nativity, badge-covered uniform drew glances like a magnet from the new aspirants all evening). Investiture was complete when a bright orange troop tie had been draped 'round the neck of each new scout.

Immediately afterwards a Boy Scout Committee was "sworn in". As members of this Committee the following Greenbelt residents solemnly promised to work together, and in their individual capacities, for the best interests of Troop 229: Reverend Edward Birner, sponsor; E. J. Meier, chairman; C. Hyland, F. Stone, S. Cornett, W. Bluehosh and C. Aylor; and J. Shaeffer who is Assistant Scoutmaster. The boys stand to benefit greatly from the combined efforts of two with such long and varied scouting experience as Frissell and Shaeffer.

At the close of the meeting Reverend Birner gave a short talk to the new troop, emphasizing the necessity for working separately and together for the achievement of badges, etc., they intend to earn. His young listeners were very attentive—bet they'll win many honors for Troop 229.

Girl Scouts Sponsor Adult Training Course

A Girl Scout Training Course for adults is being offered at Greenbelt Center School beginning March 7, Monday and Wednesday evenings from 7:30 to 10 p.m.

With the increase of Scouts in Greenbelt and the loss of leaders, the Girl Scouts need help, in all capacities, not necessarily to take over a troop.

The Girl Scouts must have more adult participation or their waiting list will increase and girls will be denied Scouting. At this time there are 16 girls waiting to become Brownies because no adults are willing to take over a troop.

This new training course is free of charge. Many people have indicated a desire to take advantage of such a course if it could be held here in Greenbelt. Now it is here, and they have the opportunity.

Here are the dates, so mark them on your calendar: March 7-8-14-16-21-23-28.

Those interested should get in touch with Mrs. Pearl Ellerin - 7437, Mrs. Evelyn Boggs - 5083, Mrs. Cleo Dutton - 4926.

brought to an end a very pleasant evening. It was very gratifying to see so many parents and other members of the boys' families present.

Members Greenbelt Troop 229: P. Hyland, E. Henry, R. Stone, D. Wagner, M. Butler, R. Haslinger, J. McNally, A. Sandvik, A. Barrow, L. Bluehosh, B. Marshall, D. Marshall, A. Aylor, M. Burchick and B. Page.
